The special committee appointed to look into the present street-car schedule met Tuesday night in the Council chamber. A representative of the street-car company was present and presented a telegram from Mr. Fisher, who is in New York, requesting the committee to defer action for a few days until he could come down. The meeting adjourned to some future time when Mr. Fisher can be present.

There is some talk among the members of the congregation of West-End Methodist church of building a church below the Petersburg railroad, and selling the present church building. It is argued that as nearly all the members of this church live below the railroad that it would be more convenient for them if the church was removed down to about Twenty-first street. There is also some the church was removed down to about Twenty-first street. There is also some talk of making Asbury chapel a regular station, and as a large number of the members of the West-End church live nearer Asbury chapel than they do to West-End, the idea has been advanced by some to unite Asbury and West-End and make of it one big church and congregation.

A Paper on Scott County.

A Paper on Scott County.

Quite a large number of the students gathered yesterday evening at the regular meeting of the Geographical and Historical Society, of Richmond College, the President, Professor Boatwright, in the chair. The first paper read before the society was one prepared by Mr. M. W. Quillin, on Scott county. The county was formed in 1814, from Lee, Washington, and Russell. The highest point in our State is in Scott county, and is called High Knob. Many points in the adjoining States can be seen from its eminence. Mr. Quillin also referred very proudly to the splendid fresh water of his county.

After reading and discussing the paper of Mr. Quillin, the names of Mr. T. T. Bagby, Wingo, O. H. Craig were added to the roll. The Executive Committee announced that at the next meeting pa-amounced that at the next meeting papers would be read by Messrs. E. E. Irving, Joseph H. Franklin, and C. E.

A Born Orator.

A Rorn Orstor.

The lecture of Rev. Thomas Dixon, of New York, at the Y. M. C. A. to-night, promises to be a drawing card to those who admire genius, imaginative power, and originality combined. Mr. Dixon is a born orator. His delivery is especially attractive, and he never fails to please his hearers. Eloquent, magnetic, and fearliess, he commands the close attention of his audience, and always makes many admirers by reason of his ability as a speaker. His subject to-night will be "The Gates of Heaven and Hell in Modern Babylon." It is safe to say that all who attend will be abundantly repaid.
